SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
MARICOPA COUNTY

FC 2003-092229

11/18/2014

Counsel for the State advises the Court of the State's position and recommendations. Counsel further advises that Father's last support payment of $368.15 was made on November 7, 2014.

Aaron M. Haynes, having been previously sworn, testifies.

Discussion is held.

Based upon the matters presented,

THE COURT FINDS that Father has been in compliance with the Court's orders regarding his child support obligation for a significant period of time.

IT IS ORDERED releasing Father, Aaron M. Haynes, from IV-D Accountability Court.

In the event Obligor does not remain current in paying all child support obligations, including all payments ordered on any arrearage herein, this Court will accept an Affidavit of Non-Compliance from Obligor or the State, at which time an Order will issue for Obligor to appear and show cause to not be incarcerated in accordance with the Court's finding of contempt. Should Obligor fail to appear on an Order to Appear mailed to Obligor's last known address, according to this Division's records, a warrant will issue for Obligor's arrest.

Obligor is advised in open court that notice of non-compliance is provided by mail, pursuant to Rule 43, Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure. An Order to Appear shall issue and be mailed to the address of record with the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED setting no further hearings on the IV-D Accountability Court calendar.

2:46 p.m. Matter concludes.

All parties representing themselves must keep the Court updated with address changes. A form may be downloaded at: <http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/SuperiorCourt/Self-ServiceCenter>.
